LAUGHS

Laugh-In Magazine is much nicer than TV.

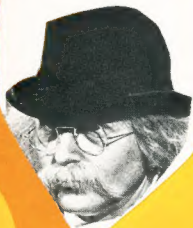

How come?

Ever try swatting flies with a TV set?

Are you sure this is how the Saturday Evening Post got started?

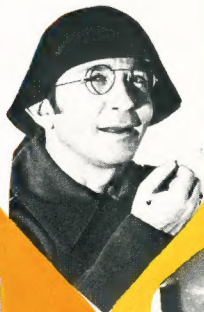

Once I pick up this magazine I can't put it down.

Must be all those sticky jokes.

Very interesting. But Mad it isn't.

It makes me flip.

My newsdealer's copies of Laugh-In disappeared in one day.

Did he have fire insurance?

If bees go bzzzzzzz — how do flies go?

ZZZip!

Despite the rumors, there is no movement in the church to create a Saint Bingo.

Man, I got it made. When Diner's Club bills me I just put it on my Carte Blanche card.

My home town is so small, everybody uses the same can of Right Guard.

Gladys, why don't you try a computer dating service?

I did, but the computer folded, spindled, and mutilated my card.

Buddy, didn't you see that Don't Walk signal?

Sure did, that's why I ran.

This mag is selling like hotcakes!

Doesn't the syrup
make the pages hard to turn?

I'm keeping my front door locked.

Frankly,
I find it a holy terror.

Why?

I haven't had so much fun since I read the telephone directory
... backwards.

Did you miss any past issues?

I don't want my subscription to run out.

Not very much.

I wouldn't have believed it if I didn't see it in black and white.

ADDRESS: The Editor
Laugh-In Magazine
1800 N. Highland Ave.
Hollywood, Calif. 90028

Dear L.-I.:

I really dig funeral homes. I just loved the article you did a few months ago about them. Actually, I think I'm wilder about crematoriums than anything. Strange, isn't it?

J. T.
Medford, Ore.

Dear J. T.:

Our staff took a vote, and you sound perfectly normal to us.

Dear L.-I.:

As a subscriber to L.-I. Magazine, I really enjoy it. But, I must admit that the plastic bag that the magazine comes in is really out-of-sight, and uptight. Recently, when I had a large scrape on my knee, I cut the ends off the bag, slipped it on my leg and over the wound and sealed the ends whenever I took a shower. I hope that fellow subscribers who are in the same situation can use the above information. Keep the bags and magazines coming.

Ralph Vieau, HN/USN
San Juan, P. R.

Dear L.-I.:

Since I missed your May edition, I bought two June editions! Aren't you grateful? Only one problem: I get sick of reading the same thing in two magazines.

Me!
Paw Paw, Michigan

Dear L.-I.:

I would like to ask you a question, and hope you will answer it. Here goes! What are you going to do when you run out of stuff to put into your magazine? Thank you.

Darlene Haney
Fremont, Calif.

Dear L.-I.:

I walked all the way to the shopping center, which is more than five miles from my house, to get your magazine. Then on top of all that, I found out that I blew 50 cents which took me three weeks to earn.

Roy Rosier
Hyattsville, Md.

Dear L.-I.:

I like your magazine, but our teacher never lets us read your great magazine in school. I hope you see my problem.

John Catherine, jr.
Jersey Shore, Pa.

Dear John:

It just proves your teacher has class.

Dear L.-I.:

I get your magazine each month. It really is swift. I guess people like you are naturally crazy to think up things to put into it.

Sandra Humphrey
Middleburg, Va.

Dear L.-I.:

Although I find your mag very amusing, one thing bothers me. Are all of the articles really true, and if they aren't, what about the advertisements? I'm beginning to wonder if the advertisements aren't true and the articles false. In my opinion, the false are true but then the true may be false. What do you think?

S. R.
Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear S. R.:

It seems as though you have hit the nail right on the head. In fact, I think you can become a writer for Laugh-In Magazine.

Dear L.-I.:

I love your stupid magazine.

T. M. K.
Hillside, New Jersey

Dear L.-I.:

Put more pictures of Tiny Tim in your magazine. You put in Yoko Ono, Snow White II, Filmore F. Grisby, and a lot of unusual people I never heard of.

Richard Malm
Cromwell, Conn.

Dear L.-I.:

Why don't you print more pictures of the freaky guy on the tricycle? What's his name anyway? By the way, your mag is groovy! Congratulations! & Keep up the good work!

Stephanie Schryba
Brattleboro, Vermont

NEWS PRESENT

WAIKIKI BEACH, HAWAII

Polish surfer Stanislawski Wipeoutski today broke the world's surfing record by successfully riding a 130-foot tidal wave into shore. However, his ride was disqualified because he forgot to take his socks off.

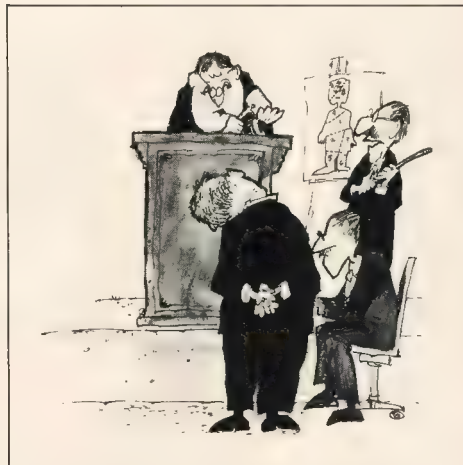

PRINCELY, NEW JERSEY

Rampaging student rioters at Princely were caught by surprise when the university president suddenly agreed to meet all their demands. Militant leaders hastily called an emergency meeting to think up some new demands.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The U. S. Surgeon General found himself playing the role of hero today. After two hours of pleading with a man who threatened to jump off a thirty-story ledge, he finally convinced the man to stop smoking. Unfortunately, the man lost his balance stepping on the cigarette and fell off.

SHYSTER, OHIO

Mr. Lem Fluggelsmith today lost his ten-thousand-dollar whiplash claim against Fall State Mutual. A doctor for the insurance company testified that Fluggelsmith did not suffer whiplash at all, just a broken neck.

NEWS PAST

THIRTEENTH CENTURY, B.C.

Friends close to Moses report that he was deeply upset today upon receiving the Ten Commandments. On the stone tablet was a P. S. that said: "That's funny, you don't look Jewish."

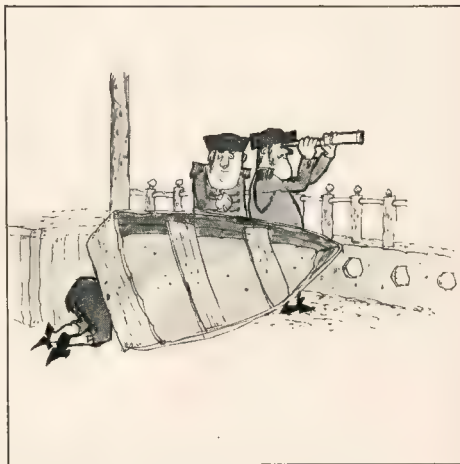

TRANSYLVANIA, 1886

The gravely ill Count Dracula had a doctor and a veterinarian on the go last night when he kept changing back and forth, from a human to a bat.

ENGLAND, 1938

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain arrived from Germany today and expressed confidence that Adolph Hitler would honor his promise to keep hands off Europe. He also stated that the Fuhrer's picking his pocket as he signed the Munich Pact was unfairly overplayed by the press.

CHESAPEAKE BAY, 1814

Frances Scott Key was treated for shock today after being discovered hiding under a life boat on a British ship. A soldier reported that during the shelling of Fort McHenry, Key was terrified by the rockets' red glare and the bombs bursting in air.

NEWS FUTURE

HOLLYWOOD, 1999

It was reported today that veteran actress Barbara Streisand is getting one billion dollars to star in the new film musical, "Funny Old Lady."

CALIFORNIA, 1986

Governor Timothy Leary launched his presidential campaign today by promising the American people pot in every pot.

PITTSBURGH, 1999

Negotiations to end the steel strike made some progress today as the industry agreed in principle to the one-hour work week. However, talks bogged down again over union demands for four fifteen-minute coffee breaks.

MONTREAL, 2069

The National Hockey League folded today after years of charges that the game was too slow for today's world. A spokesman said that they could no longer compete with the excitement of such great sports as jetpack bellyball, naked polo, or the pep pill four-mile sprint.

One highly publicized part of the American dream is the success story based on a stroke of fate, a chance encounter or just plain stupid luck. But it doesn't happen to many of us. So, let's take a look at the untold stories as we examine:

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE AMERICAN DREAM

Art: Al Margolis

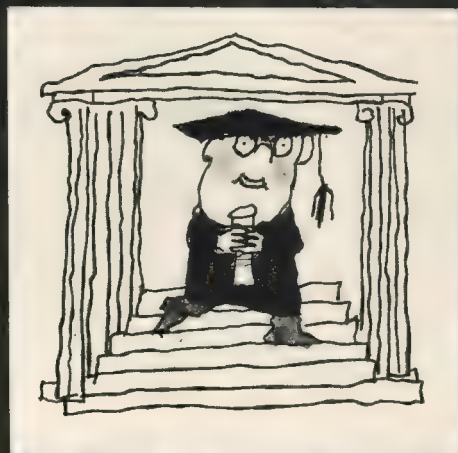

Writer: Dean Norman

Hoobert Heever got his first job as a paper boy when he was only eight years old.

Fifty years later he's still selling papers. (In fact, he has three copies from his first bundle that he hasn't sold yet.)

Thirty years ago, J. Paul Gritty graduated from high school with nothing to his name but a pair of shoe laces.

Yesterday, one of the shoe laces broke.

One day in 1959, curvaceous Lana Turnip was sitting on a drug store stool in Hollywood, sipping a soda and waiting to be "discovered".

Today, Lana is still sitting on that same stool, and 13,518 sodas have ruined her figure.

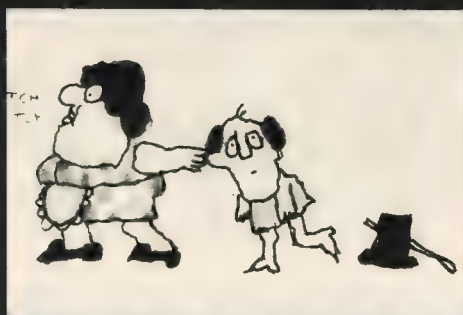

Satchmo Gibbons got his first chance to play a musical instrument when authorities gave him a cheap trumpet in the reform school marching band.

Fifty years later, Satchmo is Second Trumpet in the San Quentin marching band.

Little W. C. Cowpasture wanted to go into show business, so he ran away from home when he was only eight years old.

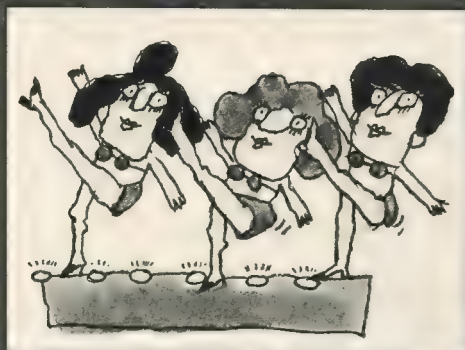

Twenty-five years later, he's still trying to run away from home but his mother always catches him and drags him back.

One day a Big League Scout saw Bob Fuller throwing apples at a barn door.

It was his barn and his apples, and he made Bob's parents pay for the damage.

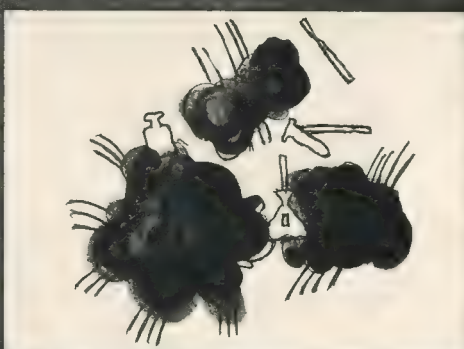

Betty Gerble was just a chorus girl for six long years, and then one day, she got her big break!

She broke her leg.

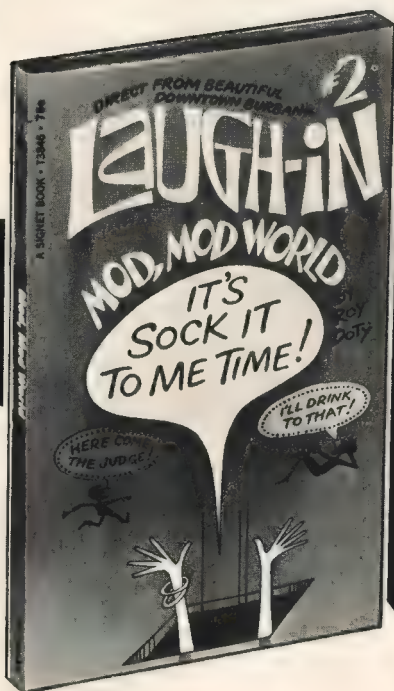

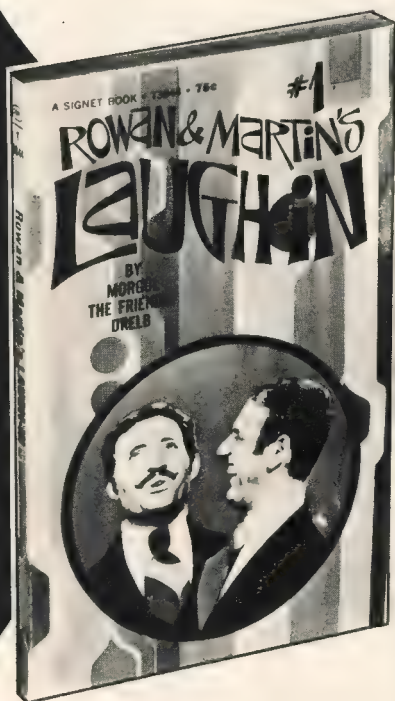

Little Thomas Addison was always inventing things and driving his parents crazy. But instead of discouraging the lad, they gave him a chemistry set for Christmas.

And he blew himself to bits.

THE STONE OF "KELB"

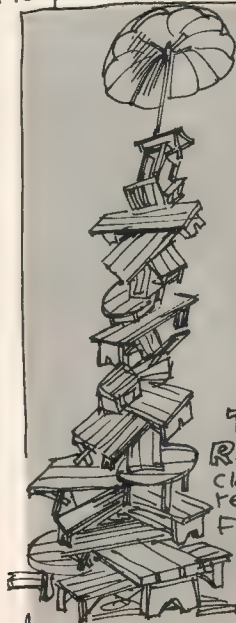

This remarkable discovery was made on January 6, 1964 in MINTZGRAVE, KENTUCKY. The stone weighs 32 Pounds and scientists believe it is made up entirely of ROCK!!

THE LARGEST SOUTH AMERICAN PYTHON ever found in the lobby of the Beazley Hotel in Quince City, Vermont was 47 feet, 8 inches !!!
(second largest was 43 feet, 9 inches!)

EAGLE SCOUT Elroy Spleet is able to blow TAPS and Reveille simultaneously on two bugles WITH HIS NOSE !!!

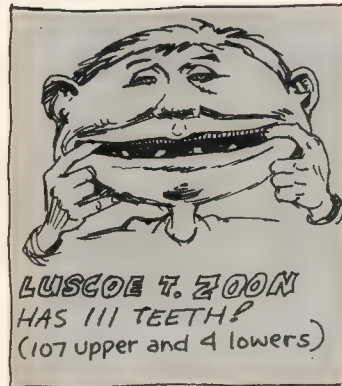

THE KLOPTMAN REDWOOD HOAX

claimed to be the world's tallest redwood tree.... ACTUALLY A FAKE!!!! It is made out of 300 tons of used redwood patio furniture!

OR WHAT!!!?

THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE actually developed a CANTALOUPE the exact size and shape of a VOLKS WAGEN!!
(But the formula was destroyed because of pressure from Detroit!)

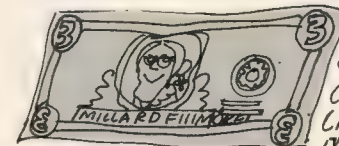

LUSCOE T. ZOON
HAS 111 TEETH!
(107 upper and 4 lowers.)

CLYDE D. PIKE, of Colorado, has been saving DIRT for 43 years. He now has a heap measuring over seven-thousand feet and plans to call it Pike's Peak!!!

ROVER a mongrel dog in ELKHART, INDIANA, weighs 24 pounds... AND has a flea weighing 53 pounds, 12 ounces !!!

At one time during the course of his life, MILLARD FILLMORE was ACTUALLY A PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES!!!

The trouble with old proverbs is that they are OLD. What we need are sayings and slogans that apply to TODAY. To coin a phrase, we should have:

NOW PROVERBS

Artist: Bill Green

Writer: George Hart

"People who live in glass houses shouldn't get stoned."

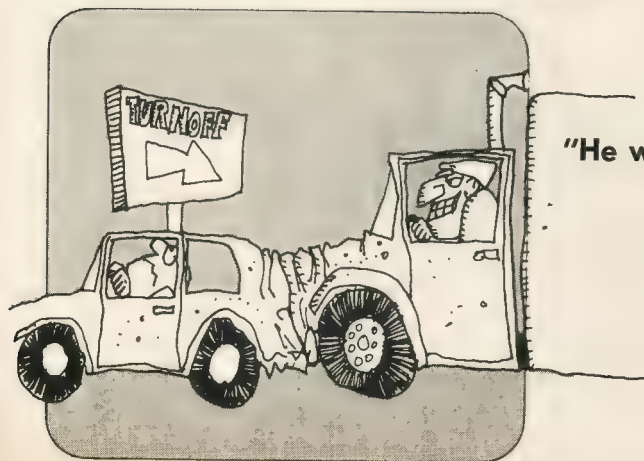

"Birds of a feather have group therapy together."

"Don't change channels in the middle of a show."

"The best things in life are freaky."

"He who hesitates is rammed."

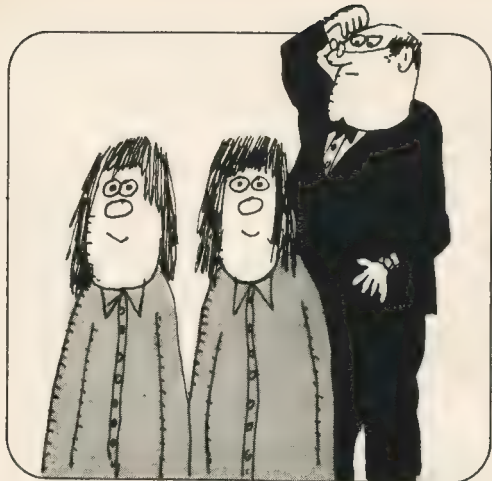

"The moving finger writes, and having writ, moves on to another rest room."

"Where there's smoke there's fuzz."

"There's no fool like an over-thirty fool."

"It's a wise father who knows his own son from his daughter."

"You can lead a hippie to water but you can't make him wash."

"Speak loudly and carry a big sign."

LOCAL PROGRAMS

Writer: George Atkins

EVENING

7:00 2 ADAM & EVE—Premiere

Rib-tickling domestic comedy centers around this husband and wife team and their two fun-loving sons, Cain and Abel. A pet snake offers a tempting performance.

4 FLIGHT FROM EGYPT—Travel

COLOR Host Moses leads a tour out of the Egyptian desert under harsh conditions. Excellent views of Nile Valley and Sinai Desert.

7 THE ROMAN EMPIRE—Movie (Italian)

Spectacular scenes throughout the Mediterranean area. Running time: 500 yrs. Stars Julius as Caesar with musical score by Nero.

7:30 2 CHRISTIANS VS. LIONS (Sports)

4 DARK AGES—Drama

The continuing story of people caught up in a web of ignorance and superstition and their valiant fight out of the darkness. Excellent dramatic performances by Feudal Kings and executioners.

7 THE BLACK PLAGUE—Drama (Medical)

Begins with a large cast but concludes with a much smaller group. Probably the biggest of the "Doctor" type productions.

8:00 2 RENAISSANCE

COLOR A "Revival" program designed to put art and learning into the day's activities. Michelangelo demonstrates painting technique in Sistine Chapel under the direction of Pope Leo.

4 LEONARDO DA VINCI HOME WORKSHOP

The multi-talented host demonstrates his various designs and inventions, which include the airplane, the gear, and a raft of other interesting projects.

7 NEWS

Reports on the Hundred Years War as well as interview with Marco Polo on his recent visit to the Orient.

9 DISCOVERY OF AMERICA—(Spanish-Italian)

SPECIAL Interesting new presentation. Stars: Isabella as Queen, Ferdinand as King, and features a recent Italian find (Columbus) as a courageous ship captain.

8:30 2 MANHATTAN FINANCE—(Dutch-Indian)

Latest New York financial news, featuring the transfer of title from Indian to Dutch hands for a sale price of $24.00.

4 PLYMOUTH ROCK

Program originates in Boston, is not musical show as title would indicate. Deals more with turkey recipes for thanksgiving feasts.

5 BEN FRANKLIN REPORTS

Interesting demonstration of how a man doesn't have to zero-in on one field to be a success. Franklin shoots out in all directions as Printer, Inventor, Statesman, Writer, and Kite-Flyer.

7 "GIVE ME LIBERTY..."—Speech

Orator Patrick Henry delivers a spell-binding address. (60 min.)

9 THE AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE—Movie

Excellent battle scenes and good views of the Delaware River at wintertime. Costumes of the American side leave much to be desired in this production, but battle scenes are realistic and fierce. George Washington is seen as leader of the Continental Army and has been tapped for a bigger role.

9:00 2 NAPOLEON—Drama (French)

Action-filled account of a young Corsican officer who rises to head of the French nation, then takes over all Europe. Not too credible, but full of high humor and action-filled suspense.

4 WAR OF 1812 (Re-run)
Another bout with the British with the same cast as the War for Independence.

5 THE COTTON GIN
COLOR Ely Whitney stars in this cotton-picking production set in the Old South.

7 THE CIVIL WAR—Special
Cameraman Mathew Brady's in-depth study of the Blue and Gray in Black and White.

9:30 2 RECONSTRUCTION
Fascinating story of the intentional collision of two great railroads in Utah.

TOM EDISON

And His Electric Light Bulb!
TONIGHT — CHANNEL 13 — 9 WATTS!
An all new device designed to keep you from having to plug in candles!

Shocking!

All sorts of entertainment in this full-length comedy-drama.

CAST INCLUDES:

The Queen Victoria
Husband Albert
Prime Minister Disraeli
Others
Prime Minister . Gladstone
Extras British Army

7 SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR—Special Report

COLOR The dramatic account of Col. Theo. Roosevelt's charge up San Juan Hill with his Roughriders and a big stick.

10:00 2 THE WRIGHT BROS.

FIRST FLIGHT (First Run)
Fun-loving Orville and Wilbur Wright attempt to get their flying machine into the air at Kitty Hawk, N.C. Program is sponsored by Coffee, Tea, or Milk Company.

4 WORLD WAR I (International Cast)

Features songs: "Oh How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning," "Over There!," "It's A Long Way To Tipperary." Running Time; 4 Yrs.

5 ROARING TWENTIES—Variety

COLOR PREMIERE. Lots of banjos, bright lights, and dancing girls. Starring Al Capone and "Silent" Cal Coolidge, this comedy-variety presentation will be remembered for decades.

7 NEWS

Plus financial report. Interviews with top economists, all of whom predict unending prosperity.

9 THE GREAT DEPRESSION—Drama

BLACK & WHITE Featuring tunes like "Brother Can You Spare A Dime?" this melodrama sports a cast of 16 Million unemployed. Although F.D. Roosevelt has been accused of attempting to dominate this presentation, his delivery is worth watching.

13 HARRY TRUMAN AND HIS FRIENDS—Documentary

Taking over seven years to make, this interesting study of a President includes scenes from Korea and a piano recital in Independence, Missouri.

10:30 2 ELVIS PRESLEY AND THE 50's—Variety

With pelvic gyrations, this newcomer charms millions of Americans. Guests include: Johnny Mathis, Dinah Shore, Liz and Eddie Fisher

4 NIXON VS. KENNEDY—Highlights

A well-edited rundown on the 1960 election. Experts who have viewed this show prior to air date declare Nixon can never reach White House.

5 THE BEATLES—Music-Variety

Originally played on the BBC, this unique musical production makes its debut here. Let's hope the hair style of this strange quartet doesn't start a trend.

7 LYNDON B. JOHNSON PRESENTS—Country and Western

Biggest production ever of that country and western style. Features Lady Bird Johnson vocals, Lynda Bird and Lucy backing her up.

9 NEWS

President Richard M. Nixon takes office with heretofore secret plans to disengage U.S. from Vietnam War.

11 MAN ATTEMPTS THE MOON—Science Fiction

Three men make an attempt to visit the moon in this eerie drama.

12:00 2 WORLD WAR III—Special

COLOR Bigger than any previous production, this oversized spectacular ran over budget: it cost two-and-a-half-billion people.

THE PONY EXPRESS

Rhona Bearcat's HOLLYWOOD Whispers

Hi, hi! Here's Miss Rhona's tip for the month: It is now definite! LEE MARVIN and JOHN WAYNE are positively out now for the Myra Breckenridge role. Tough luck, fellas, but another opportunity will come along.

Where have all the real actors gone? Yesterday, I heard sad, sad news. I have long known that most all Hollywood stars no longer memorize lines, but now I find that the MGM LION, LEO, is doing his roar from cue cards!

NANCY SINATRA has never topped her success with "Boots". Prior to a re-issue, the record company plans to have them half-sole'd.

Lovely young starlet WANDA MARTINI vehemently denies she put a giant octopus into her swimming pool as a publicity stunt (thus causing the untimely death of underwater series favorite BUSTER SCUBA). Miss Martini is currently up for the lead in the forthcoming production of Amazon Tempress.

Congrats to Hollywood for raising over a million dollars for the Frost-Free Athletic Shorts For Overburdened Eskimos Fund. Our friends in the Arctic know Tinseltown will always be great supporters.

Part of a $2.50 tour here in Hollywood includes a look at one of the stars of the past, who appears daily before eager crowds. She was instructed to do "Whatever gave her her greatest notoriety". Re-creating this event involves drinking a quart of gin and being loaded into the back of a police van. She does this at 1:30 p.m. and again at 4.

Now it can be told! Actor VINCENT PRICE has played so many mad-scientist roles, studio heads fear him! They couldn't stop using him in pictures even if they wanted to because they don't quite know what he would do!

Rumor denied: DAME EDITH EVANS says she will not take a role in Hell's Angels Town Takeover, soon to go into production. Now past seventy, DAME EDITH is concerned about a scene in which she would be required to drive a Harley-Davidson head-on into a locomotive at eighty miles per hour.

Singer JOHNNY CASH is still collecting from his hit record, Folsom Prison. Estimates are, it will sell for at least five more years, or three-and-a-half years with good behavior.

A special award is to be made to ROD STEIGER, star of The Illustrated Man. The Academy is saving engraving costs by having the citation engraved on Rod's leg with a tattoo needle rather than on a cup.

Definitely not true that lovely JULIE ANDREWS will go on a national tour with exhibition Mud Wrestling with a 400-pound Japanese Sumo Black Belt Champion. He will go alone. Julie has other commitments.

All Hollywood became concerned about former film great ELMO LA-ROQUE when he sunk to appearing only at Supermarket openings—but now, tragically, Elmo is able only to get Supermarket closings, where, instead of searchlights, flashlights with worn-out batteries are used. Last month, Elmo worked three market closings, and earned a total of $2.48 and a dented shopping cart with one wheel missing.

Let's all hope LIZ TAYLOR and RICHARD BURTON haven't damaged their careers by having their teeth filed to sharp points to get the leads in Dracula's Mom and Dad. It was a foolish thing to do, particularly since the production was scrapped after the producer died of tiny puncture wounds on the neck.
